

Indigenously developed Shake Table and Utilisation

500kg Shake Table and its associated control system, developed indigenously by RTD, provides facility to conduct various experiments on Structures, Systems and Components. Users have used the facility for various experiments such as Resonance search, OBE and SSE performance evaluation etc.

Various equipments under test